HOWAT'S APPEAL REFUSED BY MINERS

KANSAS LEADER LOSES REINSTATEMENT FIGHT BY VERY SMALL VOTE

Administration is Discouraged by Surprising Show of Strength—Farrington Says Lewis is "Dead Bird" Now—Illinois Delegation Casts Majority of its Votes for Howat

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 17.—By a margin of less than 100 of its 3825 votes the convention of the United Mine Workers today refused to consider the appeal of Alexander Howat for the union reinstatement of himself and other expelled Kansas miners.

While the defeat was shown only by unofficial tabulations of the vote, Mr. Howat tonight conceded he had been beaten, as did his principal supporter, Frank Farrington, leader of the Illinois miners. The official vote will not be completed until tomorrow when the roll of absentees will be called but Mr. Howat said that he doubted that any material change would result from the additional balloting.

In effect the vote approved the expulsion of Howat and his followers by President John L. Lewis, who said he acted because of refusal of the deposed Kansas leader to direct strikers to return to work as ordered by the miners' convention last fall.

Howatt has the right to appeal the expulsion order to the union's executive board and in event of its refusal can bring the question before the unions next convention which will be held in 1924.

Surprising strength was shown by Howat during the day's roll call and the result was not determined until 150 of the last 200 votes were cast against him. The final vote was 1959 to 1866, and efforts were being made tonight by his supporters to muster a strength to overcome this despite their leader's concession of defeat.

"We gave them a good fight," said Howat, and he added:

"I suppose now I will have to get out of the United States and go to Russia."

Mr. Lewis said he was confident that the unofficial vote was conservative, and he interpreted the result as best for the welfare of the union.

Says Lewis is Dead Bird.

Mr. Farrington said he regarded the vote as breaking Mr. Lewis' strength within the union, for he declared the result "means that Lewis is a dead bird now."

Howat's unexpected strength discouraged the administrative forces early in the day, a lead of only 5 being piled up before the Illinois delegation, having almost one-fourth of the votes in the convention, began casting an almost solid vote for Howat. By polling only 23 votes in Illinois, the administration forces fell 360 votes behind Howat. A half score of smaller districts that followed Illinois favored the administration, practically tying the vote. All except two of the last seven districts having a combined vote of 200 went against Howat, causing his defeat.

Besides Illinois, Howat carried Washington, Wyoming, Michigan, Montana, the central Pennsylvania bituminous field, known as District No. 2, and the southwestern field, known as District 21, comprising Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas.

As soon as the official vote is completed tomorrow officials plan to direct the convention toward its main object. The framing of the union's wage policy. Mr. Farrington predicted tonight that the wage policy would be settled before adjournment tomorrow by a practically unanimous endorsement of the union wage scale report favoring a policy of accepting no wage reductions for soft coal miners and increases for the anthracite workers, backed up with a threat of a nation wide coal strike on April 1. Mr. Lewis is also predicted adoption of the committe report.

REVOLUTIONISTS CAUSING ALARM THRUOUT MEXICO

American Army Officers Believe Uprising Imminent

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Additional government advices received today from the Mexican border and points beyond the line indicated that the Obregon government regarded with some apprehension signs of incipient revolutionary movements particularly near the border.

Just what information the Mexican authorities possessed as to the extent of the unrest which occasioned their apprehension was unknown to officials of the state and war departments; but it is known that this attitude among some Obregon leaders has been noted by American observers even in Mexico City.

The reports from the El Paso region while unofficial, show clearly that the Juarez situation is full of uncertainty. Mexican officers are said to have disclosed their feeling that an uprising is impending.

American advices so far as known contain nothing to confirm this belief gained from any independent source tho it was pointed out today that the precautionary measures taken by Brigadier General Howse in holding his two cavalry regiments on the post at Fort Bliss night before last in readiness to prevent firing into American territory indicated that American officers shared the expectation of the Mexican federal commanders that an outbreak was coming.

PATENTS TREATY WITH GERMANY TO BE TAKEN UP

President Asks Advice of Senate on the Question

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb., 17.—President Harding in a message to the senate today asked its advice on the question of revising by executive request the patents treaty with Germany which was negotiated on February 23, 1909, but which automatically lapsed with the declaration of the existence of a state of war in 1917.

His action was considered somewhat unusual inasmuch as the president by a mere formal request can revive treaties which were in existence when war was declared provided he makes such request within six months of the ratification of the treaties of peace terminating the state of war.

The white house explained that the president had two courses open for he could either revive the patents treaty by the executive request or could negotiate an entirely new treaty covering the subject. For this reason it was added, he desired to give the senate the same opportunity of advising that it would have if an entirely new treaty were to be negotiated, altho the negotiating of a new treaty was not expected.

Referred to Committee

The message was received at the senate late today and was immediately referred to the foreign relations committee without its text being made public. The committee is expected to take it up without delay.

The treaty covers reciprocity in the matter of the protection of patents between the United States and Germany and its revival, it is understood will automatically restore the statutes existing prior to the declaration of a state of war. It provides among other things that the law regarding the non-working of a patent with invalidation or some other restriction of right shall only be applied to the citizens of the other contracting party within the limits of the restrictions imposed by the said contracting party upon its own citizens.

It is further provided that the working of a patent, designated or modelled in the territory of one of the contracting parties, shall be regarded as equivalent to its working in the territory of the other party.

The reviving of the treaty is not expected by some officials to affect immediate German patents now held by this country. Until congress passes legislation covering these German patents it is understood the alien property custodian intends to retain them.

NO TRADE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—Frequent reports of the conclusion of a trade agreement between Russia and France which have not been verified have been the cause of uneasiness in German political and industrial circles in connection with the negotiations in progress between Leonid Krassin, Karl Radek and M. Stomanikow, representatives of the soviet, and German officials, looking to an economic agreement between Germany and Russia. The eventual success of these negotiations it is feared may be threatened in the event that France really established a friendly financial arrangement with the soviet government. The chief anxiety appears to be that a Franco-Russion agreement would tend further to isolate Germany politically and commercially and give to France an opportunity for a greater exploitation of Germany's' defeat in the war.

The letter, signed "E. F. Sands," was dated Feb. 14.—The writer declared he was living in Los Angeles and inquired whether if he surrendered himself and established his innocence of the murder of Taylor, he would be set free.

RATIFICATION OF ARMS TREATY IS TO BE HASTENED

Principal Issues Are Quickly Brought to the Surface

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The administration moved to hasten ratification of the arms conference treaties today by bringing quickly to the surface all the principal issues followed in their consideration by the senate. In the foreign relations committee Republican leaders completed a preliminary survey of opinion on every one of the eight conference agreements laid before the senate with the result that it became apparent against what particular points the opposition was preparing to direct its heaviest fire.

President Harding canvassed opinions in the American delegation regarding the senate request for full information on the four power treaty negotiations and let it be known that his reply to the resolution requesting more information would be sent to the capitol not later than Monday. He is expected to tell the senate that no stenographic record of the negotiations was kept or was practicable.

The committee discussions which began yesterday developed few surprises in their disclosure of senate sentiment. In the view of the Republican leaders they confirmed the expectation that the four power treaty would encounter greatest opposition that the naval limitation treaty would be questioned by some senators, because of its provision against further fortification of Guam and the Philippines and that the general far eastern and Chinese tariff treaties might have some opponents among those who had hoped to see the conference give China greater measure of independence from foreign interference. The treaties relating to Yap and to submarines and poison gas now are expected by the leaders to meet with the least opposition of all and some senators believe they may go thru without a dissenting vote.

It also is the belief of those who are piloting the treaties thru the senate that none of them face opposition strong enough to menace seriously ratification or even to assure adoption of reservations. On the other hand a reservation to prevent use of armed forces under the four power pact without the expressed authorization of congress has gained so much support in the committe that some Republican members think it would be adopted. A second reservation talked in the discussion of the four power treaty would provide for automatic termination of the agreement should any signatory power violate it.

With the formal reading of the general far eastern and Chinese tariff treaties today the committee completed its formal preliminary hearings of all the arms compacts except that relating to Yap.

Senator Johnson, Republican, California, led in the questioning at today's meeting in regard to the fortifications of the naval limitation treaty. He suggested that the committee should have the benefit of advice from American naval officers before it acted on the article and indicated he would formally ask later that naval experts be called before the committee.

FORDNEY ANNOUNCES BONUS BILL WILL BE READY IN TEN DAYS

Republicans Applaud When Chairman Says the Measure Will be Passed by Republican House—Gompers Opposes Any Kind of Tax to Pay Bonus—Would be an Injustice

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The outstanding development today in the bonus legislation situation was unexpected announcement in the house by Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee that the bonus bill would be ready for presentation to a caucus of house Republicans within the next ten days. A moment later there was a shout from the Republican side of the chamber when the chairman declared the measure would be passed by a Republican house.

Breaking into a row over charges by Representative Garner of Texas, ranking Democrat on the committee, that the bill was being framed secretly with the aid of representatives of the American Legion, Chairman Fordney shouted to the Democratic side that the Republicans did not deem it proper to seek advice on the bonus from those unalterably opposed to it.

While there was no other reference to the bonus on the floor, bonus talk swirled thru the corridors. Republican members of the ways and means committee went over details of the proposed bill without giving any intimation as to the exact form of the measure to be reported. The calling in of John T. Taylor, vice-chairman of the legion's legislative committee, and Richard Jones, representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars, provoked the protest of Mr. Garner and his appeal that the house step in and prevent Republicans meeting in secret with witnesses favoring the measure, without admitting Democratic members to listen to the deliberations.

How far sentiment was swinging to the sales tax as a means of raising revenue for the bonus as advocated by President Harding, was the subject of unending discussion among members. It was evident that the Republicans were determined to put the bill thru the house regardless of what might happen to it in the senate. In the event the bill is in shape for consideration by a Republican caucus within the time set by Mr. Fordney, leaders said it would be passed prior to March.

Harding Favors Tax on Production.

If the sales tax method is resorted to it was said, President Harding would view with favor a tax on production rather than on general retail sales. The executive was said to favor this form, it was said at the white house for it was, he believed the simplest form of this tax and would avoid problems of exemptions which probably would arise in case a general retail sales tax was decided upon.

Opposition to the sales tax proposed was expressed by T. C. Atkinson, Washington representative of the National Grange who characterized it as designed to shift the burden of taxation from those most able to pay it, to those least able to pay, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who declared it would work an "injustice upon the whole people."

Mr. Atkinson, writing to Chairman Fordney, said the grange had suggested the excess profits tax for the bonus and if that was found inexpedient a "tax should be levied, which will not be added to the cost of living of the millions with limited incomes."

Mr. Gompers said that organized labor stands "one hundred per cent for the soldier bonus," but opposes any form of retail, sales or consumption tax to raise revenue to pay the bonus or for any other purpose.

The bonus, he said, "should have the approval of congress but to create a sales tax would be to turn a measure of justice into an imposition and an injustice upon the whole people."

ACCEPTANCE OF OFFER WOULD BE GREAT HANDICAP

Engineer Says Would Hold Back Development of South

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Acceptance by congress of the offer of Henry Ford for the purchase and lease of the government properties at Muscle Shoals, Alabama would handicap the waterpower development of the entire south and in this respect would be like removing the vertebrae from a man "you expected to get along," Hugh L. Cooper, consulting engineer to the government on Muscle Shoals development declared today in testifying before the house military committee.

Mr. Cooper declared it would be a calamity to remove the super waterpower projects of the south from the field of public utility for 100 years. He also presented estimates based upon army engineer data showing that it would cost the government $1,275,000,000 during the next 100 years in order that Mr. Ford may secure, unregulated possession of the greatest waterpower the south has.

The minimum time for lease of government lands containing waterpower possibilities Mr. Cooper said should be fifty years and only that long, unless the license was made subject to the regulations of the federal waterpower act. He opposed the 100 year period on the ground that it was impractical from a business standpoint and no contract negotiated at this time could be made applicable to conditions he believed would prevail in 2022.

Development of power at Muscle Shoals under the Ford offer, Mr. Cooper asserted would be possible at approximately half the same costs as at Niagara Falls and at the eKokuk dam across the Mississippi and at less than half the rate cost for the same class of energy developed in the commercial power territory with'n reach of Muscle Shoals. While the witness said he realized that the people of the south were crying for the consummation of the Ford offer, he firmly believed they would be crying for its abrogation before the lease period expired.

He declared that belief was predicted on personal experiences in waterpower development in the past 30 years including that of Niagara Falls.

The power has been used for chemical purposes there, he said, not unlike the plans he understood Mr. Ford had for Muscle Shoals, and yet Buffalo, about 23 miles away had been compelled to build a steam power plant in order to serve its needs.

The board of local improvement has definitely determined upon the laying of several miles of pavement in Jacksonville this year. The betterments as planned are very much needed incidentally these pavements will mean employment this year for just about all the general labor that is available in Jacksonville.

THE MEREDOSIA BRIDGE

Meredosia citizens have proceeded with commendable energy in providing for the transformation of the railroad river bridge at their town. "Transformation" is the correct word, for by opening the bridge to general travel it will be materially changed. Now but two trains in each direction move over that bridge daily. Opened to general traffic it will be in constant use.

A new line of travel into Morgan county is thus opened and the visits of many people who have been accustomed to do their ordinary buying in towns west of the river can be anticipated. When it is remembered that there is now no general traffic bridge across the river anywhere between Beardstown and East St. Louis there comes some understanding of the importance of this improvement. For years the proposal has been talked about, but only recently has the Wabash railroad management shown a willingness to cooperate. The Meredosia citizens were quick to seize the opportunity and the contract was signed yesterday.

THE SIGNS OF GROWTH.

The increase in the water receipts of Jacksonville the past year was approximately $11,000 by comparison with the record of the previous year. It has been necessary to provide additional pumping equipment and the council now faces the need for an enlarged filter. These are expenses on which the city should be congratulated. Usually the congratulations come for economies effected of the curtailing of expenses. This is a different case, for the increased equipment means growth and that's just what Jacksonville people are looking for. They believe that increased demand would come with a satisfactory water supply and that the larger demand would later be supplemented by a gradual growth of the city. The consumers who have been connected up with the city mains for years past are now increasing their consumption and people who have not been users of city water are clamoring for the opportunity. This is a fine situation, indicative of the forward spirit which pervades Jacksonville.

WHAT IS IT THAT INTERESTS STUDENTS OF HIGH SCHOOLS.

The Quincy Herald presents this interesting resume of High school facts: "What is it that interests High school students? What part of the daily newspapers do they read and what activity of life today holds most of their attention?

"The facts recently published concerning the inquiries made by the Institute for Public Service are encouraging as to some of the interests which occupy the students but are surprising to the lack of knowledge on some of the questions which are of vital importance in current history.

"Twenty thousand of the students averaged only 46 per cent on ten questions about baseball, football and the movies. Of five hundred seniors, more of them knew about DeValera, Lloyd George, Briand and Gen. Wood than about which team won the world's series or what shining light of the screen is starred in a current popular picture.

"A majority of 500 seniors knew more about Sinn Feiners than about Mlle. Lenglen and Ruth Law.

"Answering the most interesting results being analyzed are the answers of sixty-one New York seniors. Forty-three of them could not identify Charles G. Dawes, national budget director; thirty-eight had no idea as to Myron T. Herrick's identity, twenty were all at sea concerning the identity of Secretary Mellon, ten were unable to identify a photograph of Elihu Root, and twenty-one missed Henry Ford. Some of them thought Mlle. Lenglen was a French chemist, and others identified her as Japan's representative at the armament conference.

"Thirty-five per cent of the boys did not know who won the last world's series; 50 per cent did not know Babe Ruth's home run record, and 70 per cent of the girl seniors did not know the name of the only woman member of congress. Three of one hundred high school seniors could not identify Pershing and four out of same one hundred did not recognize a picture of President Harding.

"After declaring it has cost $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 in money and time to educate 1,000 high school seniors, the report laments that '630 of them did not know the meaning of 'open shop,' 690 of them could no ecognize a picture of Elihu Root, 490 did not know anything about H. G. Wells.'"

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOTES

At dead of night the Sheik climbed the balcony to Diana's bedroom which overlooked the Sahara desert. Her jewelled revolver lay upon the dressing table. Silently the Sheik emptied the tiny weapon of its cartridges and departed in the first light of dawn.

This is one of the gripping scenes in that great paramount picture "The Sheik." A photoplay of passionate love against desert background.

MR. WORTHINGTON LAID TO FINAL REST

Funeral of Well Known Citizen Attended by Large Assemblage of Friends.

An impressive dignity marked the funeral services held Friday afternoon in memory of the late Honorable Thomas Worthington. Members of the Morgan County Bar association and Knights Templar, together with a number of friends, assembled at the residence on Grove street to escort the remains to the Congregational church, where the services were held.

Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, read the scripture lesson and then Dr. F. S. Hayden, long an intimate friend of the deceased, spoke briefly summarizing in a very beautiful way the many useful activities of Mr. Worthington's life.

As Dr. Hayden offered prayer the organ sounded softly and then the cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery, where burial took place. Hospitaller Commandery Knights Templar had charge of the services at the grave, under the leadership of Frank Muehlhausen, commander, and Julius G. Strawn, prelate. The final prayer was spoken by Rev. G. E. Stickney, pastor of the Congregational church.

At the church service a very large assemblage was present, indicative of the wide esteem in which Mr. Worthington was held and the various ways in which he came in contact with the world. Seats were reserved for members of the Morgan County Bar association, trustees of Illinois college, Hospitaller Commandery No. 31, Knights Templar, members of the Chamber of Commerce. The state bar association sent a delegation and several other organizations were also represented.

Students of Illinois College stood on either side of the church entrance as Mr. Worthington's body was carried within the church. The deceased thru a period of years had given unselfishly of his time to the college and as a member of the board of trustees was recognized as one of the best friends of the institution.

The floral tributes were especialy profuse and they were in charge of Dr. Grace Dewey, Mrs. F. J. Waddell, Misses Georgia Fairbank, Katherine Forward and Frances Waddell.

The honorary pallbearers were Andrew Russel, Logan Hay, Stuart Brown, Pres. C. H. Rammelkamp, F. J. Heinl, ex-Senator L. Y. Sherman, Frank Elliott, O. F. Buffe, E. E. Crabtree, Judge E. S. Smith, Judge Henry Higbee, J. G. Ames, Charles Gillette and Henry Scarboro.

The active pall bearers, intimate friends of Morrison Worthington, were Dr. Garm Norbury, William T. Harmon, Charles Capps, Harold Swain, William Scott, and Elmer Lukeman.

Among persons here for the funeral were, Judge H. A. McKean, and Hon. J. M. Riggs, of Winchester; John G. Bergen, and Senator Epler Mills of Virginia; J. B. Searcy, of Springfield.

Thirty Years of Service.

In his summary of Mr. Worthington's life, Dr. Hayden said:

An aged, learned, eloquent and beloved rector was on his dying bed. Assuming that the occasion would impart an access of wisdom to his words, attendant friends asked him for some final message he would publish to his time. "I have said my say," was his reply—and in silence he closed his life.

That is it!

With this man's definite and intelligible record of his action and his counsels so distinctly in our minds today—any attempt at laudation of his virtues and good works could add little even if they were not felt to be impertinent.

What we do ask — and can rightly ask, now and here, is just the opportunity to speak in appreciation of the companionship with him which this community has shared for thirty years—and of the value to us all of that life whose usefulness we shall continue to enjoy now that he has gone.

We are thankful, then, today for the inspiration of an example of solid Christian manhood and exemplary citizenship.

The qualities of character which made Mr. Worthington the distinct figure in the community, that he was, are easily discerned.

There was for him always a reasoned line of conduct, and then a persistent neglect of his personal ease in following it out. There was indeed a spartan devotion to duty as he saw it—an unsparing conscientiousness in meeting every obligation great or small.

For court and client, bank or college, farm and hospital, church and social service, public forum, lodge or chautauqua, he was always the steward of native and acquired gifts. Whether it was the case in Supreme Court involving a million dollars, or the return of a borrowed book, it was the same. There was an unwavering loyalty to the cause of chosen friends, never lacking sympathy in their troubles nor pleasure in their favored fortunes. There was the genuinely educated man's valuation of art, literature, religion and every helpful source of cultivation of our higher nature. And yet while this devotion to self-culture was very alluring to him, the recognition of his daily debt to the community which had given him business, home, and friends harnessed him into many projects for community culture—as a still greater claim, and absorbed his leisure and broke in upon congenial literary ease. He loved to do good!

Within his own field as an accomplished lawyer and adjacent ones he had an unusual inquisitive, retentive, honest and accurate mind, which lent independence and dignity to his judgments and imparted value to his opinions.

If ever a man among us was— he was always at the command of friendship and the public good."

It is enough!

In the presence of the honored remains and beloved dead we may, if we listen, hear the footfalls of the Master of all life and the Dispenser of Destiny.

In our assumed super wisdom we would hardly, in Thomas Worthington's case, have dispensed it so. The tale of his years was not yet full; his services were still needed; his continued presence would have been a matter of comfort and happiness in his own household and the homes of countless friends.

Still other needs are ours too. We need the reiterated—but neglected reminder of the insecurity of life—and our constant dependence upon God. And alas! we sometimes need the loss of a fine spirit to awaken a true estimate of its value!

At Illinois College.

At the chapel service of Illinois College Friday morning Dean F. S. Hayden and President C. H. Rammelkamp, both paid tribute to the life and character of Mr. Worthington. Dr. Hayden emphasied Mr. Worthington's keen sense of responsibility to the public and his valuable services to Illinois College thru a period of nineteen years.

Dr. Rammelkamp during the period of his presidency has been closely associated with Mr. Worthington and expressed the warmest regard for him. Dr. Rammelkamp was in Denver when notified of the death of Mr. Worthington, and immediately returned to the city in order to be present for the funeral service.

Dr. Rammelkamp referred especially to the notable service Mr. Worthington had given the college as a member of the finance committee. His judgment has been of great value in guiding the use of the investment funds of the college. Mr. Worthington was also chairman of the trustees committe on honorary degrees and was a careful guardian of the college honor.

MEREDOSIA BRIDGE PLANS ADVANCED

Meredosia Citizens Yesterday Signed a Contract With Wabash Railroad Co. for This Improvement.

The Meredosia bridge improvement is to be made and that right speedily. The contract for this improvement work was signed yesterday by representative citizens of Meredosia and officials of the Wabash railroad. A telegram conveying this good news was received by the Journal last night and reads as follows:

"To the Journal: All contract signed with Wabash railroad company for wagon bridge at Meredosia. Possibly open for traffic May 15.

"Comm. C. P. Hedrick.
"George Telling,
"W. F. Roegge,
"James Brockhouse."

By the terms of this agreement approaches are to be built to the river bridge at Meredosia, the bridge is to be planked and equipped with electric gates and will become usable for general traffic.

Morgan county, merchants of Jacksonville and Chapin will cooperate with the Meredosia people in paying the larger part of the cost of this work and some funds will be secured from property owners west of the river. The opening of this bridge for general traffic will bring a great many new people into Meredosia, who now travel to Beardstown or to towns in Pike county to do their buying. It will also mean increased travel into Jacksonville. Those who have considered the whole proposition believe it is one of the best things for the general welfare of the county that has happened in a long time.

PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCE HELD

Illinois Council of Association in Annual Session at High School Friday — Large Attendance From Six Counties in District.

The first annual conference of the Illinois Council of Parent-Teacher Associations held at the Jacksonville High school yesterday, was largely attended and proved to be a most successful inspirational and helpful event. Delegates from Morgan, Cass, Mason, Brown, Schuyler and Green counties were in attendance and a large audience assembled in the afternoon to hear the splendid address given by Mrs. W. F. Young, of Chicago, president of the Illinois Council of parent-teachers associations.

The program opened at 10 o'clock in the morning with Mrs. W. D. Roberts, of this city, as regional director of the thirteenth district presiding. Music was furnished by the Girls' Treble Clif club of the local high school and this was followed by an address of welcome by Superintendent H. A. Perrin of Jacksonville. Mr. Perrin gave a short historical sketch of school and home work and stated that the cooperation of parents and teachers is one of the most vital factors in present day educational work. Many parents do not know about their children after they reach the adolescent age and this is one of the greatest problems to solve. The parents' responsibility to and interest in the child msut continue after he is in the secondary schools if the right relation between the children and the schools is to be obtained. Mr. Perrin then spoke of the many practical and tangible ways in which parent-teachers associations may be of benefit to a community. "Find the need of your town in the way of school work and solve it," he stated in closing.

Dr. H. C. Woltman, the county physician, then made an address on the subject of "Health," as it relates to the school and community. He emphasized the fact that present day methods attach great importance to health as a vital factor in efficient education for the child. Dr. Woltman also urged that parent-teachers' associations do all in their power to secure the passage of laws which will stamp out certain contagious diseases.

Delegates Make Report.

This talk was followed by reports of the different delegates. Reports were given by Miss Norton of Griggsville; Miss Ruth Evans of White Hall; Mrs. T. M. Roberts of Chapin, and also reports from the Franklin, Lafayette, Junior High and Washington schools of this city.

Professor R. A. Swift was the next speaker on the program and his talk on, "Moral Values in Education," was interesting and practical in scope. He said in part that the parents know the difference between right and wrong as well as the philosopher or scientist and the father and mother know the kind of men and women they want their children to be. If the child lives a good life his education has not failed. The need of moral and religious education in our schools is increasing and since at the present time the sanction of authority has been largely transferred from the home to the schools, the responsibility of more judgments rests to a great degree in our educational institutions.

During the adjournment at the noon hour the delegates enjoyed luncheon at the high school cafeteria and made a tour of inspection of the new school building. The afternoon session opened with music by the Boys' Glee club of the High school.

"The Function of a Parent-Teacher association," was the subject of a splendidly inspirational and helpful address by Mrs. W. F. Young of Chicago. Mrs. Young told of the field of activity of such an organization and emphasized the relationship of the school and the home to the community at large. The parents and teachers must cooperate and make their work preventive rather than remedial.

Two Paramount Purposes.

The Parent-Teacher association has as its two paramount purposes the development of cooperation between the school and home and the promotion of child welfare. To accomplish this former, Mrs. Young urged frequent meetings in the school house to discuss the problems of the school and home. "Joiners" for Parent Teachers associations are easy to get, but 'comers" are not so easily obtained.

"The child is frequently the victim of his incessant mother and his infrequent father," stated Mrs. Young, quoting from Gilman. The child welfare work as carried on in this county is one of the greatest movements for community betterment at the present day. The Parent-Teacher association is the very best organization for the fostering and developing of community morale, declared Mrs. Young. "If the public schools have any shortcomings the home shares the responsibility jointly with school authorities. The Parent-Teacher organization is the medium thru which these shortcomings may be remedied," the speaker stated in closing.

Following a group of songs by Mrs. Marguerite Palmiter Forrest, States Attorney Carl E. Robinson made an address on the "Mothers Pension Bill." Mr. Robinson traced the development which has taken place, giving women recognized rights according to law. The present Mother's Pension Law was enacted in 113 and amended in 1917. It is called a Mother's Law but in reality is designed to help the child and not the mother. Attorney Robinson then explained the workings of the law in Illinois as regards the help that a mother may receive for herself and children, pointed out the defects in the present law and in closing, urged the parents and teachers to cooperate in bringing about more adequate and just laws for the aid of needy mothers and their children.

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFERS PRIZE FOR POSTERS

A contest in poster designing is now on at the high school and the Junior high, cash prizes aggregating $12.50 having been offered by the Jacksonville Woman's club for the best work. The contest is to be directed by Miss Harriet Seibert, teacher of art in the schools. The subjects for the posters have not yet been chosen, but they are all to be upon subjects dealing with the good of the city.

The contest is open to all students of the two schools and the young people are already practicing in preparation for the contest. Some of the practice work is now on exhibition in the art room at the high school and it is a very creditable showing.

DOING GOOD WORK AT BENNETT ACADEMY

A recent report indicates the good work that Miss Edna Osborne has been doing at Mathes ton, Miss., wher she is in charge of the home economics work of Bennett Academy. It is a part of Miss Osborne's duties to provide the food for the ninety pupils and as the institution has somewhat meagre funds, this is a task in itself. Therefore it is gratifying to note from the recent report that the deficit this year is but $89, whereas in the same period last year a defict of $500 was created. This saving, it is shown, has been accomplished without decreasing quality of the service.

Bennett Academy is in charge of the Home Mission board of the Methodist church and is a part of the work among white people who have had little or no educational opportunities.

WOODWARD CASE TO SUPREME COURT

Mrs. Celia Nesbit Making Effort to Set Aside Will of Her Uncle C. C. Woodward.

Virginia, Feb. 17.—Attorneys for Mrs. Celia Nesbit, who recently contested the will of her uncle, the late Cornelius C. Woodward, are preparing to take the case to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Woodward, by his will, left his estate, amounting to more than $100,000, in trust, naming R. C. Taylor, of Virginia as the trustee.

Mrs. Nesbit charged in her bill that Mr. Taylor obtained the execution of the will by exercising undue influence over the testator, and that Mr. Woodward was of unsound mind when he made the will.

There were two trials of the case in the circuit court here and on the second trial the jury returned a verdict upholding the will and finding that Mr. Taylor was not guilty of any improper influence. Judge Guy R. Williams entered a decre approving such verdict and Mrs. Nesbit prayed an appeal.

Thomas D. Masters of Springfield, represented the executor, Mr. Taylor, and Judge Dietrick, of Beardstown and J. J. Neiger of this city appeared for Mrs. Nesbit.

THE ECONOMY BAKING POWDER

CALUMET

Calumet possesses the farthest-reaching baking powder economy. It is the most economical leavening agent. It saves in more ways—and makes more important savings than most other baking powders.

You save when you buy it. The price is moderate—it leaves you money over the cost of high-priced brands for purchase of other articles. Costs but little more than cheap powders—far more valuable in quality.

You save when you use it. Possesses more than the ordinary raising force—you use only half as much as is ordinarily required.

You save materials it is used with. Calumet never fails with any kind of receipe or with any kind of flour—always produces perfectly raised, delicious bakings.

You'll notice a great difference when you use Calumet. Calumet produces light, sweet, wholesome, flaky bakings. You will notice with some of the cheaper brands the bakings are soggy, heavy, dark in color, and sometimes have a bitter taste.

Used by leading chefs and domestic scientists, and by more housewives than any other brand. Made in the world's largest and finest baking powder plants.

Best by test. A trial proves it.

The Law Says 16 oz. to a Pound

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

WAYNE GARD WRITES INDIA A. P. STORIES

Recently the Journal published an A. P. story received in its mail service about the reception of "Pussy Foot" Johnson in Calcutta, India.

Yesterday a letter was received from Wayne Gard, a former employe in the editorial department of this paper, stating that the story was written by him. The Journal was aware of the fact that Mr. Gard was doing work for the Associated Press in India but did not connect him with this story from the fact that it had a Calcutta date line while Mr. Gard is in Rangoon, Burma.

Mr. Gard is well pleased with work for the Associated Press and says that recently a 200 word cable has been opened for him to send out news of unusual importance. This probably was done from the fact of the unrest existing thruout India at the present time.

Speaking of his work for the Associated Press, Mr. Gard refers to his work while with the Journal and of the help that experience is proving to him in his A. P. work.

VERSAILLES LOST TO ROUTT HIGH

Final Score Was 35 to 26 in Favor of Routt—Gebert High Scorer for Routt.

Routt and Versailles staged a battle royal in Liberty hall Friday night and when the smoke of battle cleared away the Routt five was on the long end of a 35 to 26 score.

In the second half, however, Routt came back with a rush and soon overcame the lead and went out in front. BRADLEY MEETS ILLINOIS TONIGHT

Strong Peoria Team Will Face Coach Harmon's Five—Bradley Has Been Going Fine This Season.

Bradley meets Illinois college in basketball tonight at 8 o'clock in the David Prince gymnasium in what promises to be a fast contest.

Fans will probably remember the battle royal between these two teams last year on the local floor when Illinois won by the narrow margin of 21 to 20. Later in the season Illinois also trounced Bradley in Peoria by 25 to 19.

Bradley has already defeated Augustine, Wesleyan and St. Viator in a row. Perhaps their most impressive showing, so far as local fans are concerned, was their win of 24 to 13 over St. Viator last Tuesday night at Peoria. Two nights later St. Viator won here from Illinois by the count of 24 to 13. Those who saw the St. Viator team perform here feel that Bradley must have played a wonderful game to win from the Kankakee boys. Manager Marvel of the St. Viator team, stated after the game here that his team had played better basketball here than they did on the two previous nights against Bradley and Eureka.

The Illinois players know that teams are being upset unexpectedly in the Illinois Intercollegiate conference with startling regularity and they are out to give Bradley a battle.

Coach Harmon will probably start the same team that opened against St. Viator, Antrobus and Dale, forwards; Capt. Mellon at center; Cully and Jones at guards.

Rogers who tossed five neat field goals for Bradley here last year in the center position, is this year playing at forward, where he is a consistent scorer.

Oliver, a former Bloomington boy, is playing a fast game at guard. His dribbling is a feature of his play.

Cooke, former State Normal player, of Bloomington, will officiate.

The third sermon on "Stewardship," will be preached by the pastor, at the morning service at 10:45 a. m. Rev. A. P. Howells will speak on the theme, "The Stewardship of Time." If you are on time you will hear some good music by the quartette, "The Sources of Happiness," will be the subject of both the Senior and Intermediate B. Y. P. U's. at 6:30 p. m. At the evening service at 7:30 p. m. the pastor will continue the discussion of the morning, using however, the subject, "The Sunday Move of the Movies." Fortunately the Baptist church has no motion picture machine and has not been guilty of encouraging the motion picture managers of Jacksonville to petition for the same privilege enjoyed by a certain church. The city council says the fight is on. The Baptist church throws its hat into the ring on Sunday night. The pastor invites the movie fans if they care to come. All cards will be laid on the table, face up. A patriotic prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., Washington's birthday. The subject will be "The Religious Side of Washington's Life." Wear a flag and come.

KEEP LOOKIN' YOUNG
It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

A New Optical Shop
Having severed my connection with Russell & Thompson, I have opened an optical shop in the Scott Bldg. on State St., where I will examine eyes free of charge. I respectfully solicit a share of the patronage of the people of Jacksonville and vicinity and hope to merit their support.
If you need glasses you need them NOW. To put off wearing them simply aggravates and frequently causes eye-strain that impairs the entire nervous system.

MODERATE DEALINGS IN STOCK MARKET

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Transactions in the stock market today were relatively moderate and lacked much of their recent breadth. Dullnes was largely at the expense of values, leaders, sustainng gross losses of two to eight points. Oils, steels, motors, chemicals and related specialties were most reactionary. Liquidation of Mexican petroleum was the feature attended by familiar but unconfirmed rumors of adverse conditions in the Mexican oil fields. The stock closed at a net loss of 6½ points and Pan-American "A" and "B" shares lost 3½ to 3½ points respectively.

United States Steel cancelled only a fractional part of its steady advance but independent steels proved susceptible to reports in trade circles of impending cuts in finshed materials.

The demand for rails was limited to coalers. Illinois Central was sharply depressed on announcement of a new preferred issue and trans-continentals were dull. Sales amounted to 700,000 shares.

Brokers reported a light inquiry for call money which opened and renewed into next week at 4 per cent that rate ruling thruout. Time money offerings were mostly for the shorter periods, all being made at 4½ per cent.

French exchange was strongest of the important foreign remittances the 10 point advance in Paris bills being associated with the vote of confidence given the Poincare cabinet. British exchange was barely steady and German marks were heavy. Further gains of 15 and 20 points by Sweden and Norway featured the increased strength of Scandinavian bills.

BRADSTREET'S WILL SAY TODAY

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Trade is still curiously irregular—spotted is perhaps as good a word as any—and varying reports come from different sections of the country and lines of trade. Wholesale and jobbing trade still lacks definite form altho the stirrings of spring buying are noted by many jobbers at Northern, Eastern and West Central markets with optimistic sentiment showing more growth than does actual buying.

"Features of the week have been cut rate sales run by Central-Western merchants and Eastern manufacturers of percales and some printed goods, with fair results, wile the shipping departsents of some large eastern jobbers have run short of spring goods.

"Wheat is up nearly 40 per cent, corn 35 per cent and hogs 20 per cent."

SELLERS DECIDEDLY OUTNUMBERED BUYERS

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17—Sellers decidedly outnumbered buyers in the wheat market most of the time today, lessened general confidence in higher prices being apparent. The market closed heavy, 1⅝c to 2½c lower with May $1.37¼ to $1.37½ and July $1.20⅝ to $1.20⅞. Corn finshed ⅝c to 1@ 1⅛c down and oats off ⅜c to 1⅛c. In provisions the outcome was 10c to 20c advance.

Almost as soon as the wheat market opened prices showed a tendency to decline. Downturns in foreign quotations had a disturbing effect both on owners of wheat and on would be purchasers. It soon became evident that yesterday's persistent efforts to realize on holdings were being continued by numerous dealers. In some quarters the desire was manifest to let go of May contracts and to take July instead because of unfavorable weather and crop reports from the southwest. High winds and dust storms in Kansas led to a vigorous rally in prices of wheat in the middle of the session but the effect on the market failed to last, and closing was at about the day's lowest level with May down more than 5c compared with the top figures of yesterday.

Taken as a whole the volume of business was considerably reduced from the big total that has been the rule of late.

Corn and oats declined with wheat and as a result of reports the interstate commerce commission had disapproved lower freight rates on grain from Minneapolis and the west.

Relative scantiness of offerings made provisions average higher.

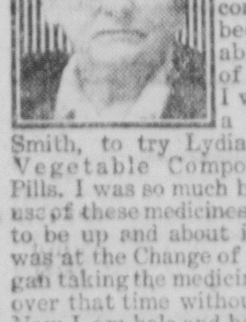
CHANGE OF LIFE WOMAN'S TRIAL
Proof That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is of Great Help at This Period
Metropolis, Illinois. — "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it is all it claims to be and has benefited me wonderfully. I had been sick for eight months with a trouble which confined me to my bed and was only able to be up part of the time, when I was advised by a friend, Mrs. Smith, to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I was so much benefited by the use of these medicines that I was able to be up and about in two weeks. I was at the Change of Life when I began taking the medicines and I passed over that time without any trouble. Now I am hale and hearty, do all my housework, washing, ironing, scrubbing, and cooking, all there is to do about a house, and can walk two or three miles without getting too tired. I know of several of my neighbors who have been helped by your medicines." —Mrs. EMMA CULVER, 705 E. 7th St., Metropolis, Illinois.
You may depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.



MRS. ANNA E. HUGHES

Mrs. Anna E. Hughes, 22 West Elm St., Chicago, an artist who enjoys a wide and enviable reputation for skill in china painting, in relating the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac, says:

"I haven't enjoyed such good health or felt so well in every way in years as I do now. Before I took Tanlac I was so run down that half an hour at my work would tire me completely out and I was actually so nervous and weak that at times the brush would fail from my hands and I would have to quit work for the rest of the day. Every night I would lie awake for hours, miserable and nervous.

"My improvement after the first few doses of Tanlac was rapid and constant. I'm happy to say I'm well and strong now and feel better than in twenty years. Tanlac deserves every word of praise I can give it."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co., and J. F. Shreve Drug Store and by the leading drug store in every town. —Adv.

ARTHUR VANNIER FUNERAL FRIDAY

Was Held at Central Christian Church—Large Number in Attendance.

A large number of relatives and friends gathered in Central Christian church Friday afternoon to attend the funeal of Arthur Vannier. The services were in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius, assisted by the Rev. T. H. Tull. Members of Urania Lodge No. 243 Odd Fellows, attended the services in a body. The funeral ritual of the order was carried out at the church.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Carl E. Robinson with Miss Alice Mathis at the organ. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings and these were cared for by Mrs. Homer Potter, Mrs. M. E. Gilbert, Mrs. Ernest Roach and Mrs. Arthur G. Cody.

Mr. Pontius said in part:

The Christian is the medium thru which the spiritual comfort of the Christian religion comes to those in sorrow. Comfort is spiritual truth conveyed thru human personality.

Among the recorded sayings of Jesus we find these words, "Bind up the broken hearted." He was quoting from the sixty first Chapter of Isaiah. It is our duty to bind up the broken hearted.

We bind up the broken hearted when we teach the naturalness of sorrow. No one can live long in this world without a broken heart. Sorrow and disappointment form a part of each normal life. While we have a ray of bright hope we recognize that sorrow comes naturally. Sorrow forms a part of human experience.

"Be still sad heart, and cease repining,
Behind the clouds is the sun still shining;
Thy fate is the common fate of all,
Some days must be dark and dreary."

We bind up the broken hearted when we teach the naturalness of life. Life is not a miracle concealed in mystery. Life is real, earnest, natural and the grave is not its goal. The natural life in the spiritual realm is no different from the spiritual life in the natural realm.

We bind up the broken hearted when we teach the naturalness of death. Death is not so mysterious as life and we have just declared that about life there is no mystery. Mr. Vannier's life is unchanged by that experience which we call death. The soul, the spiritual life of our brother are just the same today as they were a few days ago when he inhabited the house of clay which is no longer his home.

We are temporary residents in the house which is of the earth earthy and the experience which we call death releases the soul that it may dwell in the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being H. C. Clement, Homer Potter, Ernest Roach, M. E. Gilbert, W. D. Cody, Leslie Lewis.
